Rotary & Project CLASS

SHARED MISSION

Rotary and the Project CLASS programs of Houston Achievement Place (HAP) share a mission of service and commitment to bettering people and our communities.

The Four-Way Test is Rotary's unique approach and process to address conflicts, solve problems and make decisions to achieve desired outcomes. It can help us be more successful in reaching mutually beneficial, sustainable, and scalable solutions.

Partnership Resources Include:

- www.projectclass.org
- Children's Books
- Book Animations
- Demonstration Videos
- Songs & Song Animations
- Activity Guides
- On-Line Training Sessions
- Help-Line Coaching
- Social Media Blitz

Is it the Truth?

PROJECT CLASS

(Children Learning Appropriate Social Skills) has the proven ability to achieve 3 outcomes:

1. Improve children's behavior, learning readiness, relationships & focus of attention;
2. Equip children with core-foundation social skills;
3. Strengthen the capabilities of teachers, parents & other caring adults to teach core skills to children.

Will it build Goodwill & Better Friendships?

Is it Fair to All Concerned?

What makes the Rotary and Project CLASS collaboration especially viable for local communities is the availability of free resources and support at www.projectclass.org. Mutual benefits abound with potential for a positive cascade- amplifying awareness and impact for both Rotary & those helped by

Will it be Beneficial to All Concerned?

Because the Four-Way Test also underpins Project CLASS services, and because Project CLASS has developed a flexible and effective way to benefit both the children and adults of local communities in meaningful ways, Rotary clubs and Project CLASS working together can be a helpful and effective collaboration.

Social Media Campaign for Local Communities= More Rotarians

With our Rotary & Project CLASS song and animated video already developed, spreading the word about Rotary values and Project CLASS free resources can be readily achieved.

Imagine our communities more principled with Rotary values and both children & adults with improved behavior and relationships: Kinder, Safer, More Principled, More Compassionate People & Communities.

Website free resources: Children's Books, Songs, Animations, Demonstration Videos, Activity Guides for Parents, Teachers, Grandparents, & Training Experiences - all linked to skills development and having fun and Rotary values.
